Any film may also have a sequel, which portrays events following those in the film. Bride of Frankenstein is an early example. When there are more films than one with the same characters, story arcs, or subject themes, these movies become a series, such as the James Bond series. And, existing outside a specific story timeline usually, does not exclude a film from being part of a series. A film that portrays events occurring earlier in a timeline with those in another film, but is released after that film, is sometimes called a prequel, an example being Butch and Sundance: The Early Days.

Percentage box office losses outside of mainland China for January to March 3, 2020, are 70–75% in Italy, 60% in South Korea, 35% in Hong Kong, the Philippines, and Singapore, and 30% in Taiwan.<sup>18</sup> The Los Angeles box office, a key movie market and local economic backbone, was projected to fall by 20% in April 2020 compared to its 2019 figures, based on the state of emergency declared in the county at the start of March 2020.<sup>18</sup> Despite the state of emergency, as single screens within movie theatres do not hold more than 1,000 people, they were granted an exemption from the ban on mass public gatherings in California. A National Association of Theatre Owners representative for California and Nevada announced that theatres would stay open historically, movie theatres have remained open during other similar emergencies.<sup>19</sup> However, a survey of Americans over the opening March weekend showed support for closing movie theaters.<sup>9</sup> On March 15, Deadline reported that over 100 movie theaters in the US had closed, some due to local rulings and others because of an inability to keep them open with no demand<sup>3</sup> on March 17, with national restrictions to social gatherings, cinemas across the United States closed.<sup>12</sup> However, drive-in theaters, where customers stay in their own cars, were not closed, and quickly grew in popularity again.<sup>20</sup>

The Tribeca Film Institute, a fundraising and educational non-profit, suspended operations on September 1, 2020, due to uncertainties surrounding our new reality. The Tribeca Film Festival which operates under the same parent company will continue.<sup>76</sup> The Provincetown International Film Festival and its associated non-profit laid off its newly hired CEO and eight other staff members in 2020 due to the pandemic.<sup>77</sup> The San Diego International Film Festival, held in October 2020, screened both online and on drive-in screens.<sup>78</sup> In September 2021, it was announced that a person with COVID-19 attended several screenings at the 2021 Toronto International Film Festival. Films affected included Dune, Bergman Island and The Humans.<sup>79</sup>
